Eye of the Storm

Hurricane Science, Mitigation, and Preparedness

SPONSORS

FIU

International Hurricane Research Center

MODS is teaming up with FIU International Hurricane Research Center and the Florida Division of Emergency Management for one of our most popular annual events!

Hurricane season is around the corner! Future storm chasers will learn all about this natural phenomenon and how to be prepared for anything nature throws our way! Guests can test building skills in our wind tunnel construction zone, explore weather related engineering challenges in our makerspace lab and create a make-and-take barometer.

WHEN: May 14

TIME: 10 a.m. - 5 p.m.

PRICE: FREE!

Exhibits, Shows and Demos:

Attend the "What's Up with Weather?" demonstration to explore the great water cycle and its significance in Earth's weather patterns and then make-and-take structures to weather the storm at the Windy Towers station!

Upgrade to watch an IMAX documentary film on the GIANT screen for only $5 per person!
